

Celebration of 77th Republic Day, 2026

The 77th Republic Day was celebrated on 26th January 2026 with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervour at the campus of BASU. The celebration began with the hoisting of the National Flag by the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Dr. Inderjeet Singh, followed by his Republic Day address in which he highlighted the contributions of the BASU and encouraged faculty, staffs and students to work hard and contribute positively.

The event was organized by the Student Welfare Officer along with his team, ensuring active participation from students, faculty, and staff. A ceremonial march past was presented to the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor by the NCC and NSS wings of the University. Adding vibrancy to the celebration, the Cultural and Literary Society of BASU organized a cultural programme featuring patriotic songs, dances, and a skit performed by the students, reflecting the spirit of national pride and unity.

The celebrations concluded with a friendly cricket match between the teams of BASU and the National Airport Authority of India, Patna. The BASU team, comprising faculty members, staff, and students, displayed excellent teamwork and sportsmanship and won the match with a comfortable margin. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from the university community and served as a meaningful tribute to the values and ideals of the Republic.
